CHAPLIN'S LIBRARY

Dedicated Saturday With Interesting Programme—Memorial to William Ross—Beautiful Structure Appreciat-

The William Ross Memorial library at Chaplin was decienced Saturday with exercises both marning and afterboom. Many were present coming from all the surrounding towns, some even from distant places coming to attend one of the most notable celebrations in the history of the town. The yeather conditions were exceedingly unpleasant and the rain kept many news way who had intended to be present and pay tribrie to the memory of a man whose laudable generosity made possible such an institution as the handsome library edifice which has been erected to his memory.

Then Mr. Ross died there was cound in his will a provision for a memorial library. His widow, Emily J. Ross, was so much in sympathy with this that out of her portion of the estate she gave an additional amount towards the erection of the building and the endowment of the library. The two of Chaplin deeply appreciated all this and made the widow the building committee. It was under her direct supervision that the building was etected, and while it is a tribute to the memory of her husband, it is also a tribute to Mrs. Ross personal generosity.

The dedicatory exercises began about

Attended Coventry Entertainment.

Saturday night the men of the First I Congregational church of South Coverty gave an entertainment in the church pariors which was largely attended, many from this city being present. One of the features of the evening was the joint debate on the question of woman's suffrage. Those who took part in this were Dr. W. L. Higgins and Attorney Curtis Dean, E. A. Peterson and C. N. Lee. After the enteratinment there was an oyster supper which was well served and which was relished by many.

Socialist Address.

There was the usual large attendance Sunday afternoon at the meeting of the Willimantic socialists. The speaker was Fred Holdsworth of Norwich, who gave a very interesting address on Socialism and Municipal Polltics. This is the first time in the history of Willimantic that the socialist party has had a ticket in the field for city officers, and the address delivered Sunday was highly interesting because reference was made to what socialists had done in city affairs in other localities and what they could do in Willimantic if elected by the people.
